

ONE KILLED, 3 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Injuries to A. R. Johnson, Almond Street, Prove Fatal. One Driver Held

CHILD HIT BY COUNCILMAN

One man was killed and three persons seriously injured in automobile accidents in this city and Camden during the last twenty-four hours.

The man who met death was A. R. Johnson, fifty years old, 838 Almond street. He was struck by an automobile while crossing Market street at Juniper yesterday afternoon. Johnson was taken to the Hahnemann Hospital by a passing automobile. He died this morning.

Three-year-old Catherine Core, 814 Tarker street, was struck by an automobile while crossing Tarker street at Eighth and thrown several feet. Edward Garvey, 1904 South Second street, driver of the car, took the child to Mount Sinai Hospital. Her skull was fractured and she suffered severe bodily injuries.

Garvey was arrested by the police of the Third and Dickinson streets station. Jacob Haas, eighty-two years old, 5643 Summer street, was struck by an automobile while crossing Vine street at Fifty-eighth. He was thrown violently to the ground. As Haas was able to regain his feet unassisted he told the driver he was all right. On reaching home, however, Haas suffered severe pains. He was taken to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital. There it was discovered he had received severe cuts and bruises of the body.

Albert Turner, three years old, 2312 South Seventh street, Camden, was struck by an automobile driven by Councilman Arthur Moran, of Camden, on Seventh street last night and seriously injured. Moran took the child to the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital. He reported the accident to the police and was on his own recognizance.

According to Detective Whelan, who investigated, the child ran directly in front of the car and the accident could not be avoided.

LOSES LAST BATTLE

Clifford Lowe, Hero of Argonne, Dies at Age of Forty-two

Clifford Lowe, said by army officers to have been one of the bravest Negroes who ever fought for the Stars and Stripes, died last night at his home, 1204 South Boulevard street, as the result of illness due to the World War. He was passed while fighting in the Argonne Forest, and never completely recovered. He was forty-two years old.

Lowe participated in the charge on San Juan Hill during the Spanish-American war, under Colonel Roosevelt, fought in the Boxer rebellion in China, and also in the Philippines. He spent all his life since youth in the army. He was regimental quartermaster sergeant major. In the last war he fought with the Ninety-second Division. His funeral will be held Thursday afternoon.

WILL EAT AROUND GLOBE

Quartermaster Corps to Have "Long-Distance Dinner" Starting It Here

In commemoration of the 146th anniversary of the establishment of the Quartermaster Corps on June 16, 1775, in Carpenters' Hall a "long-distance dinner" will be held in the Hotel Adelphia Thursday, when captains of industry and business men who supplied the army during the war will sit down with quartermasters of all ranks, regulars, reserves and guardsmen in the first celebration of its kind ever held in the army.

Fifty more dinners will be held in various cities throughout the country, as well as in Germany, France and the Canal Zone, Hawaii, Alaska and the Philippines, and the dinners, as far as the differences in local time will permit, will exchange greetings by telegraph, telephone, cable and radio.

BUSINESS CLUB ON PICNIC

Outing at Eslington to Follow Luncheon at Adelphia Hotel

The annual outing of the City Business Club will follow a luncheon of the members today in the Hotel Adelphia. The members will leave Broad and Pine streets at 1:45 o'clock and motor to Tinicum Inn at Eslington, where games of baseball and golf will be played and several boxing matches included in. There will also be boating, fishing and swimming. Dinner will be served in the evening.

Held as Money Raiser

Daniel Ross, twenty-five years old, who said he lived in South Philadelphia, was committed to the Camden Jail today for attempting to pass a $10 bill which complainants say had been raised from a $2 bill. Ross was arrested at Clementon and will be arraigned later before United States Commissioner Johns at Camden. Four other young men who were with him are being detained as material witnesses.

Man, Taken for Burglar, Shot

Randall Moore, thirty-three years old, of 1002 South Eighteenth street, a Negro, was shot in the back at 11 o'clock last night by Benjamin Williamson, forty-three years old, also a Negro, of 502 South Eighteenth street. Williamson declared when arrested he thought Moore was a burglar. The shooting occurred in Williamson's back yard, where Moore said he had gone to deliver a prescription from a drug store. Moore was taken to the Polyclinic Hospital, where his condition is serious.

SWATTED HARD AND OFTEN

Four Men in Argument Over Dry Law in Hospital for Repairs

Four friends fell out over the Volstead Act early this morning, and all of them wound up in the Hahnemann Hospital for repairs. They are John Agster, 631 North Twelfth street; Charles Stein, 3907 Torresdale avenue; William Drexler, 1231 Buttonwood street, and James Guth, 405 North Twelfth street.

The argument started at Twelfth and Willow streets about 1:30 o'clock this morning, and became so loud neighbors telephoned to the Tenth and Buttonwood streets station. By the time police arrived the four men had knocked

BOY BADLY BURNED

Clothing Became Ignited by a Gasoline Torch

His clothing becoming ignited by a gasoline torch in a garage in Felton street above Lansdowne avenue yesterday afternoon, William H. Houghton, six years old, 1550 North Redfield street, was burned on the face and chest.

He was taken to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital. The torch was on a workbench in the garage. As the boy approached it his clothing caught fire. Screaming, he ran from the building. A passing motorist grabbed him, enveloped him in a robe and took him to the hospital. His condition is serious.

Church Honors Bishop

A tablet to the memory of Henry Compton, Bishop of London from 1675 to 1713, was unveiled yesterday morning in Christ Church, Second street above Market. The ceremony was part of the celebration of the 225th anniversary of the church. The letter of presentation, written by Elizabeth Large, president of the Colonial Dames, was read by the Rev. Dr. Louis C. Washburn, rector of the church.

Our Vast Facilities Make June a Harvest Month of Furniture Economies

Now, in the month of June, when Brides are numerous, and homes look loveliest—when the Furniture needs for the Summer Bungalow, the Seaside Cottage and the Country Home are most urgent, the Great Van Sciver Store rises to the requirements of our customers and the public with a display of Furniture as immense and handsome as ever graced our vast Galleries—at prices lower by far than anything we have announced in years.

The new lowered prices of the new productive conditions! The bedrock prices that the factories have recently come down to. Not the prices of 1912 and 1913, but lower prices than we ever expected to see at this time—prices that the public has long hoped for. Savings that emphasize the fame of this, the House pre-eminent for its Great Furniture values, make comparison where you will.

Add to these advantages the reductions we have just made on thousands of dollars' worth of Period and Modern Furniture. Remainder lots of great purchases from early Spring selling. Odd Surpluses and Pieces together with Special Purchases and Surplus Lots acquired at big savings for cash. Furniture on the whole as fine and as handsome as we ever laid eyes upon, with more for your money than any place we know.

This $1,000.00 Georgian Mahogany Dining-Room Suite—10 Pieces, NOW $800.00

An idea of the great reductions we have made on thousands of dollars' worth of matched Suites, chiefly in handsome Period designs throughout the Store, all at proportionate savings. In the Suite illustrated, the artistic cupboard fronts are inlaid with very finely carved Walnut. It is in the handsomely carved and shaped scroll legs and stretchers that the ornate features are concentrated, thus giving the Suite an elaborate motif, withal retaining the broad and plain surfaces that enhance its charm and dignity.
